

Dear Sirs,

We are writing on behalf of 307 Squadron Project, a Polish-British charity, to invite you to 'The Polish D-Day Story' a special event taking place in Portsmouth on Saturday 22nd June 2019.

As part of the 75th anniversary commemorations of D-Day we are holding the event at the D-Day Story (D-Day Museum) in Portsmouth to explain the important story of the Polish involvement on D-Day and during the Normandy Campaign.

'The Polish D-Day Story' is open at the museum (within the usual entry price to the museum) from 10:30am - 4.30pm on Saturday 22nd June.

The President of the Republic of Poland, Andrzej Duda is the patron of this event.

The event is being attended by many British-Polish VIPs including representatives of the Polish government, the Polish Embassy in London, the Lord Mayor of Portsmouth and other civic dignitaries.

The Polish D-Day Story, promoting British-Polish friendship and cooperation will include the following:

- An exhibition in both English and Polish detailing the Polish D-Day Story
- Presentation by Alexander Smaga, designer of the newly installed Polish Air Force Memorial in Normandy
- 'Forever a Pilot' a film by Sławomir Ciok about 303 Squadron pilot Alex Herbst who was involved in D-Day
- Performances by British/Polish singer Katy Carr
- Polski Klub Miłośników Historii (Polish History Lovers Club)
- Performances by the Polska Sobotnia Szkoła im. Powstańców Listopadowych w Portsmouth (Portsmouth Polish Saturday School)
- Art installation by Seran Kubisa (granddaughter of Polish soldier Tadeusz Kubisa who served in the Normandy Campaign)

Please find attached our poster advertising the event, we hope that you can kindly assist us in publicising this important event, and also attend.

If you require any further information please do not hesitate to contact us.

Kind regards,

Andrzej Michalski, Michael Parrott, Marcin Piórkowski
